

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON
OF INDIANA.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

THE INDIAN SCHOOL.

The appropriation of $25,000 for the construction of buildings for the Indian School has passed both Houses and is signed by the President. It is in the following language:

"For the purpose of constructing and completing suitable school buildings for an Indian Industrial School, to be located at some point in Ormsby county, in the State of Nevada, upon lands previously donated to the Government, of not less than 200 acres in extent, and of such character and location as shall be deemed most suitable for the purposes of the Secretary of the Interior, upon plans and specifications to be approved by him, $25,000."

PACIFIC COAST ITEMS.

—An Indian named Christo was killed by a San Diego street car, Wednesday night.

—An overdose of morphine is the cause of J. J. Lingard of San Bernardino being at death's door.

—John Bennett, thirteen years old, pulled a gun through a fence at Grass Valley Wednesday and had his hand badly mutilated by the discharge of the gun.

—McElarny Jim, an Indian, celebrated the Fourth at Cloverdale, by killing Indian Dick, who had killed Jim's brother a year ago and had escaped punishment.

—James Cott, aged one hundred and five years died at Moonshine, near Bullard's Bar, Yuba county, last Saturday. He filed a homestead entry at the age of ninety-nine.

—L. L. Leroy, a resident of Cacheville, it is reported, is a victim of that terrible disease, gangrene, which he contracted from a band of horses on Webb Curtis' ranch. Leroy undertook to doctor the disease, with this terrible result.

—In a shooting scrape at a place called Mulberry, some eighteen miles from Hollister, Thursday, between C. H. Waters and W. H. Stone and his son Ed., the former was killed immediately and the two latter wounded so seriously that it is doubtful if either can recover. A dispute over the ownership of the land caused Waters to go to the field to prevent the Stones from heading the wheat. Hence the shooting.

—Harrison made many warm friends in the army, and although circumstances parted them after the war, their remembrance of him did not die. On other day he received the following note:

HAWES CRY, Kan., June 28.
Congratulations of an old soldier of your regiment whose knapsack you carried when he was exhausted from sickness and fatigue in the Atlanta campaign.

J. F. SNOW,
Private Company D, Seventieth Indiana Infantry.

—The Chicago Journal of Commerce states that three newsboys of that city, guilty of no misdemeanor, were arrested last week at their request and sent to the Bridewell. Their reason for wishing to go there, as stated to the police justice, was that they wanted to learn a trade. Under the laws of the trades unions there is almost no chance for the American boy to learn a trade in any shop or manufactory outside of a house of correction.

—A Chicago woman whose husband had been coming home drunk for several years, got wearied of his bad habits, and a few nights since poured a gallon of Standard XXX Oil over him and set it on fire. He was rapidly burned to a cusp. This seems about as good a way as any to dispose of such a man.

—The New York Sun continues to pour hot shot into the ranks of the Democracy. The Sun was once the leading organ of the Democracy, but its editor swore by such men as Tilden, and will not consent to bend his splendid talents to the service of the present party leaders.
